For Customers

Your city may be busier than you know! It's filled with late nights and great bars - get involved!

From special events to happy hour to daily deals, Access the Night is here to lead your new social life. Receive notifications of instant offerings directly on your phone, tailored just to you, or, if you're feeling more adventurous still, mix it up and explore new spots through GPS-mapping and newsfeeds, then share with friends on Facebook - all to truly, finally, access the night.

For Vendors

Want to boost sales by directly reaching students and young professionals, the hard to lure big spenders!

Join Access the Night, a mobile application and analytics dashboard that allows you to send push notifications to the phones of the customers you want, list yourself on their newsfeeds, and be featured on their GPS maps. Then, at every step of the way, gauge your success with instant, trend-tracking, clear data. It's social media and interactive marketing at their finest - low risk with high reward, guaranteed!

Palin: Obama 'Lacks Class' With 'Bush Burn' Rapper

Sarah Palin again criticized President Barack Obama just for inviting the rapper Common to the White House because the controversial performer has sung lyrics praising the brutal murder of a state trooper and urged burning former President George W. Bush.

anand verma

Anand Verma Director of Business Growth and Strategic Accounts at SapientNitro Europe, part of Sapient®, is the world's first customer experience company. We create and engineer highly relevant experiences that accelerate business growth and fuel brand advocacy for our clients.

By combining multi-channel marketing, multi-channel commerce, and the technology that binds them, we influence customer behaviour across the spectrum of content, communication and commerce channels, resulting in deeper, more meaningful relationships between customers and brands.

In his role Anand works with some of the leading global brands to help define their multi-channel strategy and implement the end-to-end multi-channel propositions that ranges from marketing and content to commerce.

Some of his recent clients include AstraZeneca, Barclays, Sky, MTV, BUPA, Qatar Airways and Auto Trader. Prior to Sapient, Anand worked at Microsoft, AKQA and Modem Media / Digital. He has special interest in mobile, social media and innovative technologies.
